

Nové Hradý

How to come to Nové Hradý

1. You can come to the airport in Vienna

- At first from airport to the city centre – you have to go from Vienna airport to Franz Josef Bahnhof => It's the big train station. You can use bus or train to coming to Franz Josef Bahnhof.

- The second point of your journey is coming to Nové Hradý. You can go by train. The journey from Franz Josef Bahnhof has 3 parts:
  - a) From “Vienna” to “České Velenice”
  - b) From “České Velenice” to “Nové Hradý žel. st.” – train station
  - c) From “Nové Hradý žel. st.” – train station to the city centre “Nove Hradý” - There is a problem, the train is about 5 Km from town. => for this journey you have to use a bus
- => Where find information about the trains: you can use www.idos.cz it's in Czech language only but it very easy to use it.

2. You can come to the airport in Prague

There are more possibilities (<http://www.pragueairport.co.uk/public-transport-from-to-the-airport/>), I usually go by bus, it takes about 20 minutes (you can buy the ticket in the ticket machine). It's bus from airport to the part of Prague – Zličín. You can continue from Zličín to city centre by the underground

Prague – České Budějovice/Nové Hrady

Than you can continue by bus or by train.

a) bus

I would like to recommend you the bus of Student agency – it's reliable, fast, very comfortable but you have to buy the ticket before the journey – it's often full - <https://jizdenky.regiojet.cz/?0>

If you want to go by bus you have to go to the underground station “Anděl”, there is bus station “Na Knížecí” – the buses of Student agency use it. You have to buy ticket to České Budějovice.

b) Train

If you want to continue by train, you have to go to the underground station – “Hlavní nádraží”. There is big hall, where you have to buy ticket. You can buy it in the train too, but it's more expensive. You can buy it before the journey too – on page <https://www.cd.cz/eshop/>

You can buy the ticket to České Budějovice only or directly to Nové Hrady. If you buy the ticket to Nové Hrady, you have to know that the train station Nové Hrady is not in the town but it's about 5 km far = sometimes you can use bus for the journey train stop – city, but you can't use it often.

České Budějovice/Nové Hradý

You can see where is the train station and the bus station in České Budějovice on this map. The bus station is on the roof of shopping centre Mercury.

You can go to Nové Hradý by bus – it's OK, you will be directly in town Nové Hradý.

You can go by train too. But the train stop is 5 km far from the town. You have to walk or sometimes you can go by bus. The bus stop near train stop is called "Nové Hradý, žel. St." and the bus stop in town is called "Nové Hradý".
